

Training Update

October 27, 2017 – The CCB will increase its training offerings as we move forward into 2018 and beyond. With the acquisition of dedicated training space at 3580 Main Street in Hartford, the rebranded Luis Marcano Learning Center, we have not only the ability increase our unique offerings, but also to keep our registration fees competitive. A catalog for the winter months is currently in development and will be released shortly. Our first scheduled event at the Hartford site will be an updated version of a favorite from prior years, Increasing Your Creativity to Engage and Retain Clients with Tom Greaney.

We hope to see you there.
