

Job Title: Recovery Support Clinician

Reports To: Clinical Director

Job Summary: To support clients in feeling motivated and connected to recovery by providing therapeutic activities on a daily basis including group therapy, individual counseling, case management and outreach calls. Work closely with the primary clinicians and alumni department foster a strong, long lasting connection to Mountainside well beyond post discharge. Participates in Alumni events to foster the therapeutic connection to Mountainside.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following; other duties may be assigned:

- Works to ensure clients receive ongoing counseling, support and responsiveness in support of providing an unsurpassed treatment experience
- Maintains appropriate boundaries to practice and model good ethical behavior in dealing with clients
- Maintains positive relationships with clients, working to assess clients' acuity of needs and appropriately intervening to support those clients presenting as high-risk for ASA departure
- Acts as role model, explaining and encouraging pro-social behaviors such as: 12 -step meeting etiquette, time management, appropriate language, dress and the importance of building healthy, same-gender fellowships
- Make frequent rounds to be aware of client activities, give guidance and redirection when needed, to ensure that clients' behaviors are within Mountainside guidelines and to be available for emergency situations
- Conducts therapeutic treatment utilizing best practices of counseling, case management and crisis intervention in assisting clients toward the recovery process.
- Understands group dynamics and processes; facilitates groups with a focus on integrated care, and documents efforts via individualized progress notes.
- Facilitates meetings consistent with skills and knowledge as directed
- Communicates client issues from shift to shift via in person or email, while also documenting within the EMR
- Outreach calls to clients to assess wellbeing and maintain a strong connection to Mountainside
- Document discharged clients updates in Salesforce in order to track progress
- Inform discharged clients of Alumni offerings and encourage attendance and participation
- Reports and records in client record progress notes relevant information in appropriate clinical language
- Takes direction from designated Managers and communicates in an effective and timely manner to same
- Participates in weekly individual clinical supervision and group clinical supervision.
- Attends trainings and in-services as directed

How to Apply: Please go to <https://mountainside.com/about-us/careers> to apply.