CCB Definition of a CCS - Certified Clinical Supervisor

The Connecticut Certification Board defines a CCS - Certified Clinical Supervisor as a person who, by virtue of special knowledge, training, and experience, is uniquely able to inform, motivate, mentor, guide, and lead professionals in their clinical practice. For the purpose of certification, a Certified Clinical Supervisor is defined as a professional who has demonstrated competence in performing a range of supervisory activities as defined in the Clinical Supervisor (CS) Job Task Analysis Report (2008, 2010) by the IC&RC - International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (www.internationalcredentialing.org). In order to become certified as a CCS, a candidate must demonstrate they have completed appropriate education, training, and supervised experience relevant to the performance domains identified in the Clinical Supervisor (CS) Job Task Analysis Report and the professional must:

- a) be reciprocally certified as an AADC, CAC, CCDP for at least one year
- b) document their experience in both providing and receiving clinical supervision
- c) pass the IC&RC Exam for Clinical Supervisors

In all activities, the professional must demonstrate consistent adherence to the CCB Code of Ethical Conduct (2010) & CCB Code of Ethical Conduct – Disciplinary Procedures (2010) and agree to continue their professional development with ongoing education and training specifically related to clinical supervision.

- Rule 5.3 – A certified professional shall meet and comply with all terms, conditions, or limitations of any professional certification or license he or she holds.
- Rule 5.4 – A certified professional shall not engage in conduct that does not meet generally accepted standards of practice.
- Rule 5.5 – A certified professional shall not perform services outside of his or her area of training, expertise, competence, or scope of practice.
- Rule 5.6 – A certified professional shall not reveal confidential information obtained as the result of a professional relationship, without the prior written consent from the recipient of services, except as authorized or required by law.
- Rule 5.7 – The certified professional shall not permit publication of photographs, disclosure of client names or records, or the nature of services being provided without securing all requisite releases from the client, or parents or legal guardians of the clients except as authorized or required by law.
- Rule 5.8 – The certified professional shall not discontinue professional services to a client nor shall he or she abandon the client without facilitating an appropriate closure of professional services for the client or facilitating an appropriate referral for future counseling.
- Rule 5.9 – A certified professional shall obtain an appropriate consultation or make an appropriate referral when the client's problem is beyond their area of training, expertise, competence, or scope of service.

SAFETY & WELFARE

- Rule 6.1 – A certified professional shall not administer to himself or herself any psychoactive substance to the extent or in such manner as to be dangerous or injurious to the professional, a recipient of services, to any other person, or to the extent that such use of any psychoactive substance impairs the ability of the professional to safely and competently provide services.
- Rule 6.2 – All certified professionals are mandated reporters (abuse & neglect) and each shall comply with all mandatory reporting requirements.

RECORD KEEPING

- Rule 7.1 – A certified professional shall keep timely and accurate records consistent with current standards of best practices and shall not falsify, amend, or knowingly make incorrect entries or fail to make timely essential entries into the client record.

ASSISTING UNQUALIFIED/UNLICENSED PRACTICE

- Rule 8.1 - A certified professional shall not refer a client to a person that he/she knows or should have known is not qualified by training, experience, certification, or license to perform the delegated professional responsibility.

DISCIPLINE IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS

- Rule 9.1 – A certified professional holding a certification, license, or other authorization to practice issued by any certification authority or any state, province, territory, tribe, or federal government whose certification or license has been suspended, revoked, placed on probation, or other restriction or discipline shall promptly alert the Board of such disciplinary action and provide the Board with such information concerning such discipline and/or authorizations to obtain such information about such discipline as the Board deems reasonably necessary or desirable.

COOPERATION WITH THE BOARD

- Rule 10.1 - A certified professional shall cooperate in any investigation conducted pursuant to this Code of Ethical Conduct and shall not interfere with an investigation or a disciplinary proceeding or attempt to prevent a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action from being filed, prosecuted, or completed. Interference attempts may include but are not limited to: 1) the willful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative; 2) the use of threats or harassment against, or an inducement to, any client or witness in an effort to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action; 3) the use of threats or harassment against, or an inducement to, any person in an effort to prevent or attempt to prevent a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action from being filed, prosecuted or completed; 4) refusing to accept and/or respond to a letter of complaint, allowing a credential to lapse while an ethics complaint is pending, or attempting to resign a credential while an ethics complaint is pending. Violation of this rule under these circumstances will result in the immediate and indefinite suspension of the certified professional's credential until the ethical complaint is resolved.
- Rule 10.2 – A certified professional shall: 1) not knowingly make a false or misleading statement to the CCB, the State of Connecticut, or any other disciplinary authority; 2) promptly alert colleagues informally to potentially unethical behavior so said colleague could take corrective action; 3) report violations of professional conduct of other certified professionals to the appropriate licensing/disciplinary authority when he/she knows or should have known that another certified professional has violated ethical standards and has failed to take corrective action after informal intervention.
- Rule 10.3 - A certified professional shall report any uncorrected violation of the Code of Ethical Conduct within 90 days of an alleged violation. Failure to report a violation may be grounds for discipline.
- Rule 10.4 - A certified professional with firsthand knowledge of the actions of a respondent or a complainant shall cooperate with the CCB investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Failure or an unwillingness to cooperate in the CCB investigation or disciplinary proceeding shall be grounds for disciplinary action.
- Rule 10.5 - A certified professional shall not file a complaint or provide information to the CCB, which he/she knows or should have known, is false or misleading.
- Rule 10.6 - In submitting information to the CCB, a certified professional shall comply with any requirements pertaining to the disclosure of client information established by the federal or state government.

MODIFICATION OF CODE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT/DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

- Rule 11.1 - The CCB Board of Directors reserves the right to amend and modify the Code of Ethical Conduct and the Code of Ethical Conduct – Disciplinary Procedures. When changes are made, all certified professionals will be notified of all changes made and when changes become effective.

To the CCS Candidate's Supervisor:

Candidates for CCS –Certified Clinical Supervisor are required to submit a satisfactory reference from the candidate's current or most recent supervisor. You are asked as the supervisor of the candidate whose name appears on the attached form to complete the attached reference and return the original form to the candidate for submission. Please do not submit photocopies as your original signature is required. The reference is an integral part of the certification process. It is therefore imperative that each reference be filled out as completely as possible and returned on a timely basis.

A CCS – Certified Clinical Supervisor is a person who, by virtue of special knowledge, training, and experience, is uniquely able to inform, motivate, guide, and lead professionals who work with clients with addictive disorders. For the purpose of certification, a Certified Clinical Supervisor is defined as a clinician who has demonstrated competence in performing a range of supervisory activities and interventions as defined in the Clinical Supervisor (CS) Job Task Analysis Report (2008) by the IC&RC - International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (www.internationalcredentialing.org). In order to become certified as a CCS, a candidate must demonstrate they have completed appropriate education, training, and supervised experience relevant to the treatment of addiction. A qualified clinician is considered to be performing as a clinical supervisor when:

- a) the professional has primary responsibility for providing individual and group supervision specifically to clinicians who work in the treatment of addiction disorders
- b) the supervisory interventions are designed to guide counselor development, program development and evaluate professional and clinical performance
- c) the interventions are directed toward promoting adherence to professional and ethical standards

Thank you for your time and consideration for this important task. If you have any questions about the certification or evaluation process, please contact the CCB offices.

Sincerely,

Connecticut Certification Board, Inc.
