

Certified Recovery Peer Professional (CRPP) Grandparenting Eligibility, Requirements, Application Requirements, and Process

CRPP Grandparenting Eligibility

- 18+ years of age.
- Trained by a DMHAS-approved Peer Support Training Organization or have an active CPRS certification through the Connecticut Certification Board (CCB).
- Employed/volunteering in a peer support role within the last three (3) years or up to date recertification.
- Ten (10) hours of continuing education training (10 CEUs) in the last 3 years if trained prior to July 1, 2024.

CRPP Grandparenting Requirements

- Verification of age.
- Verification of training by one of the following DMHAS approved training organizations:
 - Advocacy Unlimited (AU)
 - Connecticut Community for Addiction Recovery (CCAR)
 - Hartford Healthcare Recovery Leadership Academy (HHC-RLA)

or

 - Verification of active CPRS credential from the CCB
- Verification of employment or volunteering in a peer support role within the last 3 years or up to date recertification.
- Attestation to ten (10) hours of Continued Education Training within the last three (3) years.
 - This requirement is waived for individuals that completed a DMHAS-approved peer support training program on or after July 1, 2024.
- Attestation to Connecticut Recovery Peer Professional 2024 Ethics and Values.
- Take beta-pilot examination.
 - This requirement is waived for individuals that complete a DMHAS-approved peer training program between May 2nd and June 30th, 2025.

The CRPP Grandparenting Certification is a time limited opportunity. Applications will be available February 21st, 2025 and the last examination testing will be on May 15th, 2025.

2.19.25 ew